

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Carole Mary Angell was born on December 25, 1939, to John and Estelle Angell at Chicago, Illinois, growing up in that area; and,

Whereas, Carole attained her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Illinois, a Masters in Education degree from South Dakota State University, and her Doctorate in Education from The University of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Carole married Paul Kasen on December 28, 1957, at the Sauganash Episcopal Church in Chicago, Illinois, and to that union two children were born, Sandra and Sharon, and their lives were further blessed by two grandchildren, Jamie and Matthew; and,

Whereas, In 1969, Carole's professional career began as an elementary school teacher, she served as an adjunct professor from 1984 to 1999, was co-founder and co-director of the South Dakota Governor's Camp for Gifted Children for grades 7-9, co-founder and co-director of South Dakota Ambassadors of Excellence for grades 10-12, and co-developer and director of Dakota Schoolhouse Program for gifted elementary students; and,

Whereas, Carole has a list of accomplishments and awards too numerous to list, and has also shared her time and talents with many professional organizations, enriching the communities where she has worked and resided; and,

Whereas, Carole also finds time to enjoy Bible study fellowship and service to the Rimrock Evangelical Free Church as a member of the special events and hospitality committees and also serves as a greeter; and,

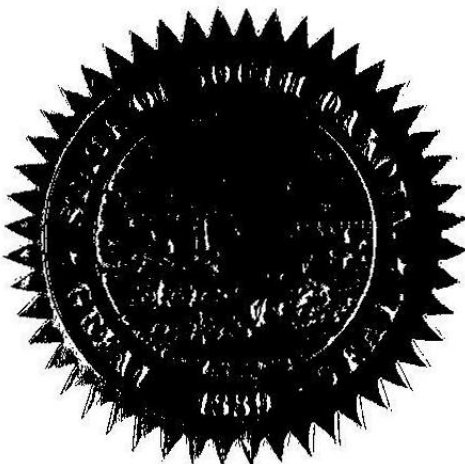

Whereas, Carole observed each of her previous birthdays on Christmas Day in the shadow of that very special day, and now her family wishes to observe her 70th Birthday with a "Surprise Party" on May 29, 2010, with all of the fanfare and celebration such a milestone deserves, as her friends and relatives gather to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

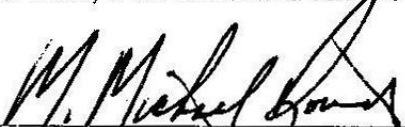

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 29, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join all her many friends and relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
